DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

2. Claims 1-5, 7, 8 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hanrahan (U.S. 5,066,025).

Hanrahan discloses a brush seal comprising a bristle housing including a cover plate (18) and a supporting plate and positioning arrangement (20), angled bristles (14) and a stator positioning arrangement or recess (36).

3. Claims 1-5, 7, 8, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Werner et al (U.S. 6,302,400).

Werner et al discloses a brush seal comprising a bristle housing including a cover plate (3) and a supporting plate (4), bristles (5), a first positioning arrangement or projection (7) and a second positioning arrangement or recess (in housing 2). The cover plate including a flanged section (7) and the supporting plate including an axial section.

4. Claims 1, 3-5 and 10-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Reisinger et al (U.S. 5,066,024).

Reisinger et al discloses a brush seal comprising a bristle housing including a cover plate (5) and a supporting plate (4), bristles (2), and first and second positioning arrangements or at least one pair of holes (7 and corresponding holes in the housing). The cover plate including a flanged section having an undercut (11b) and the supporting plate including an axial section.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 6 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

DeFerranti, Kelch et al, Cromer et al, and Reluzco et al are cited to show other brush seal positioning devices.
